But many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous prostration, another with pain hero and there, and in this way they present alike to themselves and their easy-going or overhousy doctor, separate diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, known of the course of suffering, keeps up his treatment until large bills are mide. BRYAN-DANIEL COLLOQUY. William Jennings Bryan reached New York yesterday after his personal encounter with Senator John W. Daniel of Virginis, in Washington, Tuesday, when the Senator, it is alleged, told Mr. Bryan to his face in the crowded lobby of the Releigh Hotel that it was time he ceased considering himself tetter than his party; that it was time he ceased taking the ceased taking his cue from the Independence League and returned to the democracy. Mr. Bryan declined to discuss the merits of the quarrel, saying: "It was a personal affair between gentlemen, and gentlemen do not publicly discuss their personal sflairs. We will settle it be-tween ourselves." "Is a duel being plannee?" "The Nebraskan laughed and replied that he would not discuss the matter.

Senator Daniel arrived in Richmond Tuesday night. Senator Daniel was yesterday morning shown the report of his encounter with Mr. Bryan, and read the report over carefully, expressing some surprise that a pleasant meeting had been converted into an apparent estrangement. He decird that any bit terness had been shown in his conversation with the Nebraskan. Asked regarding the occurrence, the Senator re-plied, "I did not know that I had had a sharp passage at arms with Colonal Bryan. This is the first intimation I Bryan. have had of such a thing. There as ome little pleasant badinage between us about some points about which we differ—the tilt growing out of the long acquaintance and easy terms on which we regard each other. I have time and we regard each other. I have time and again spoken with Mr. Bryan and hundreds of times for him. Our personal triendship has not changed, although differences exist between us on several important questions. I certainly had no idea that the brief talk between Colonel Bryan and myself was anything more than a personal interview between gen-tlemen. The discussion occurred while the carriage was at the door, and I was near the exit to take the train for Richmond and was nothing more than an off-hand situation and the exchange of a few views on questions of general moment. I am surprised to know that the matter should be looked at in a different light." SUNDAY CLOSING.

Arraignment in court of the first Chicago saloonkeepers arrested for failure to close their places of business Sunday, arought the Sabbath closing fight, in which the arrestof hundreds is promised o an issue visiorday. With the crisis announced a new line of campaign to be ollowed in the event of defeat. The dea is to throw their entire support to Sunday closing and enforce all laws on the subject with such vigor that the laws will be rendered obnoxious to the entire mmunity and be repealed.

This will mean arrests of persons in every branch of basin as conducted on the country has Sunday, from the publication of Sunday newspapers to the operation of automo-oiles. Only one exception is conceded by the saloonkeepers. The barber shops are exempt from prosecution, under a Su-preme Court decision.

If Sunday closing is enforced agains: the saloons, the liquor interests assert the same law will operate to bring to an end all business and social activity in which the element of noise or exchange of money enters, save what can be proved to be a work of necessity or charity.

Theaters, the amusement parks, ball games, all come within the measures referred to by the liquor interests as the "blue laws of 1845" The cases against the saloon keepers were set for hearing December 10.

THANKSGINING-1907. Some day, we'll wander far and wide
O'er G d's eternel plains—
Where from t - b ghl ndsfill the chords of n use's thing trains.

They's tall on an a sich desult And est miles it.

The line stress of the pld fancs—
Or people throughing there.

And, while for Eden's belfrey chines
Afrits silvern peal—
Mem'ry will bear us to the abrine
Where we were went to kneel,

Where we were wont to a hear,
In hallow'd worship to our King,
And on his aliar lay
Our sheaves of praise and gratitude
On each Thankegiving Day!
For, God holds our brief day of thanks—
Our prayers—the songs we sing—
The free will off ring from our stores—
The chimes that sweetly ring—

As cherish'd trophies yielded Him: Such as He'll ne'er forget; A nation's love and loyelty; When we're together met

To bless Him for the years of grace; His love that crown'd each hour; The sunlight—bringing bad and bloom. The dew drops and the show'r.

Ah—as we wander on for aye
O'er God's broad kingdon fair—
We'll catch the cohoes of the songs
That float ou Eden's air,—

And, they will be those dear old hymns
Of love, and Joyeus praise
Once wafted up from earth to Heav'n
On glad Thanksgiving days!

All kept within a chalice, just
To greet our Saviour's own—
When we've pass'd thro' the golden gate
To worship at His throne.
